

Profile

Gail Albert
Director of Marketing & Events

I was born in NJ and met Ken on a blind date in 1964 in Poughkeepsie NY. We married in 1965 and moved to VT in 1969 with our 5 week old daughter and then gave birth to our own native Vermonter in 1970. We now have two young grandchildren who love to “work” in the vineyard! In college, I majored in Russian and later took an MS in Speech Pathology. I’ve been a fine woodworker (my career there started with turned mahogany wine goblets!) and a fundraiser for public radio. I directed the Discover Jazz Festival in 1987 and then turned to working in higher education and service-learning, work I continued until 2006 when my title at the Vineyard as weekend weeder was elevated to Marketing Director. In my spare time, I’m a 17 year member and current Chair of the Shelburne Natural Resources and Conservation Committee and am President of the Vermont wine Council.
